Expression of wishes guide and nomination form

Why do I need to give you an expression of wishes?

One of the benefits offered by your pension is the ability for the funds held in your SSAS to be passed on to others after your death.

If you die before the age of 75, the funds can be passed on free of tax. If you die after you have reached 75, they will normally be taxed at the recipient's marginal rate.

Your expression of wishes helps us to decide who you would like to pass those funds on to after your death.

Can I give you a binding instruction rather than an expression of wishes?

No, we do not accept binding instructions, as giving a binding instruction would make it very likely that the benefits would be subject to Inheritance Tax.

Where payment to beneficiaries is made at the discretion of the trustees including AJ Bell Trustees Limited, this significantly reduces the chances that some or all of your pension will be subject to Inheritance Tax after your death.

Why does the form have both a nomination and an expression of wishes section?

The nomination section of the form ensures that the widest possible range of people is eligible to receive payments in the form of a pension, rather than being restricted to receiving them as a lump sum.

The expression of wishes section separately allows you to give us a better idea of who you would like to receive any payments, without reducing the options of anyone you do not name.

Can I update my expression of wishes if my circumstances change?

Yes. It is important that you consider your expression of wishes from time to time and make changes if this is appropriate. You can update your expression of wishes by completing a SSAS expression of wishes form.

This information is based on our understanding of HMRC guidance. Tax rules can change in the future and the tax treatment depends on your personal circumstances. If you are unsure about the best action to take, please consult a suitably qualified professional.

Expression of wishes nomination form

You should complete this form to tell us who you wish to receive payment from your SSAS in the event of your death.

The nomination below ensures that the widest possible range of people is eligible to receive payment as your beneficiaries.

Please note that if you are unsure about the implications of making the nomination and related expression of wishes, or if you would like any advice about the effect of doing so, you should consult a financial adviser or other appropriately qualified professional.
